

2024 GOLF CLINIC

Centennial Golf Club is hosting several group clinics. Each Clinic will be two-hour sessions providing plenty of one-on-one interaction. Sign up for all three clinics and receive a complimentary 9-hole voucher with golf cart and range balls.

Scott Klemme, PGA and Dan Barnard are going to be conducting three group golf clinics at Centennial Golf Club. Whether you are an avid golfer looking to dial in your skills, or a novice golfer looking to develop some fundamentals these classes will benefit you.

Each class will be two hours long and the fee is only $100 per class.

As a bonus, sign up for all three classes and you will receive a complimentary (9) hole voucher for golf which will include practice balls and a golf cart.

- The first class will be Putting and Chipping on April 14th. This class will help you improve your scores instantly and is a great refresher for all skill levels.
- The second class will be Bunkers and Pitching on April 21st. Let's just face it, we can all use some help in the bunkers and short distance.
- The last class will be Drivers and Irons on April 28th. The final step in fine tuning the overall game. The two-hour class will help you develop the fundamentals of the full swing.
